A BRUTAL ASSAULT

A Strange Man Attacks Young Lady on Way Home at Late Hour—Plucky Girl Deals Stunning Blow

Miss Crissie V. Woodward, daughter of H. H. Woodward of Sunny Oaks, was the victim of a brutal attack on last Monday night. As she, with a younger sister, was returning from a reception given at the Coupland home in her neighborhood, she was suddenly attacked by a man and thrown to the ground. As she was struggling with the man on the ground, her younger sister began kicking him, which so disconcerted him that Miss Woodward was enabled to get to her feet again, whereupon she grabbed one of the flowerpots which had been given them by Mrs. Coupland and hit him on the head so severely that he seemed to be dazed from the blow. Seeing this she began to scream vigorously and the brute made off.

Messrs. Purmont, Beale and Woodward scoured the immediate vicinity for the scoundrel, but could get no trace of him. Nor was there any further clew the next day when Constable Sharp and Justice Farley interviewed the parties with hope of finding something definite.

Judge M. C. Sloss, candidate for Associate Justice Supreme Court, is the son of old pioneer merchant and trader, who did as much as any other man to develop the industries of the Pacific Coast.

Charge of Petty Theft Leads to Damage Suit

W. J. Feebeck Says His Arrest Was Malicious and Without Cause

W. J. Feebeck of Campbell, through his attorneys, W. M. Beggs and R. C. McCormish, began suit in the Superior Court against E. G. Lanz of the same place Friday on the alleged ground of false and malicious prosecution. He avers that on the 15th of July last Lanz procured his arrest on a charge of stealing two tiers of oak wood of the value of $10 from the basement of a building on the east side of Gilman avenue in the town of Campbell; that upon the trial which followed on October 3 before Judge J. E. Glendenning in the town of Campbell, after a full hearing of all the witnesses produced by the prosecution the action was dismissed on the motion of defendant for the reason that the prosecution had failed to prove its case. Plaintiff avers that in the employment of attorneys and in the expenditure of time and money in procuring witnesses to defend himself he expended $100, and that his standing and good name in the community were injured to his damage in the sum of $2500. He therefore asks judgment in the sum of $2600, together with costs of suit.—Mercury.

Church Boys Banquet

The Sons of "King David's Mighty Men" Feed the Trustees and Propose Plans for Clubhouse

The parlors of the Congregational Church were the scene of a delightful time last Tuesday night, when the boys of "The Cave of Adullam," the local branch of the national organization "King David's Mighty Men", gave a banquet, and entertained as their guests the trustees of the church, the pastor and their athletic trainer for the coming winter. About a score were present. The boys prepared a sumptuous spread consisting of clam chowder, salad, sandwiches of various kinds, cake, cookies and cocoa. The father of one of the club sent forty pounds of the Grapes of Eschol. King David, President of the club, acted as toastmaster.

The trustees were asked to grant permission to the club to build a club house 30x60 feet on the back lot of the church property. This will doubtless be granted, as the trustees individually were in favor of the project. The boys have their plans well in hand and themselves as a club pledged $25 towards it, nearly half of which is in their treasury. Practically $100 was pledged toward it that night. From the enthusiasm shown there and comments heard since, it seems safe to predict that the boys of "The Cave of Adullam" will have a commodious clubhouse erected before spring. This movement promises much for the boys and young men of Campbell and vicinity.

BIG ADVERTISEMENT FOR CALIFORNIA

San Francisco and Entire State Will Benefit Through Publicity

It pays to advertise. Any business man will tell you that. But what a great many people do not realize is that advertising—judicious advertising—pays the advertiser, whether the advertiser be a business man, a city or a State.

The census returns show a healthy growth in the great majority of cities throughout the United States but the greatest average increase in population is found in those communities that have followed a course of systematically advertising their superior advantages in climate, and in commercial and industrial possibilities.

A striking example of the benefits of municipal advertising, as illustrated by census returns, is shown in a recent press dispatch from Washington giving the completed figures from four cities. The city of Jacksonville, Florida, heads the list with a increase of 103 per cent. This is a wonderful increase and way beyond anything shown by the other cities included in the report.

The explanation is simple. The city of Jacksonville has been a generous and consistent advertiser. Henry M. Flagler has expended $2,000,000 in telling the world about Florida, and about the beautiful and progressive Jacksonville and the world has responded. Florida has grown and developed remarkably in ten years and Jacksonville has shared in the general prosperity.

The advertising that San Francisco is receiving and will continue to receive for the next five years will bring results equal to those shown in the Jacksonville returns. Not a dollar of money that is being spent by San Francisco in the fight for the Panama-Exposition will be wasted. It is an investment, and an immensely profitable one whether the fight for the fair is won or lost, and as we are going to win, the investment will be doubly profitable.

WHAT IS THEIR EXCUSE?

Oxnard Courier Believes All California Papers Should Boost the Exposition.

The Oxnard Courier wants to know what excuse any California paper has for not boosting for the Panama-Pacific Exposition. Commenting on the indifference of some and opposition of others to the movement, the Courier says:

"The editor of the Santa Ana Blade refused the invitation to be the guest of the San Francisco and San Diego Exposition companies at Santa Barbara because he was afraid it would put him under obligations to boost for a $5,000,000 bond issue for the benefit of San Francisco. The Blade man made a mistake. He should have gone to Santa Barbara and listened to the San Francisco and San Diego speakers. A judge would be a poor jurist who makes up his mind before he hears any of the arguments. This fair proposition is one that is not for the glory of San Francisco, but for the glory of California as against New Orleans and Louisiana. The latter State with an assessed valuation of only one-fifth that of California has already raised six and a half millions. If the Blade and other newspapers of Southern California that did not send representatives to Santa Barbara and in the light of the developments at that conference, are not willing to shout for "San Francisco, San Diego and all California," what are they going to shout for in the World's Fair controversy? The Southern and Middle States are solid against California. The West and the East will have to pull unitedly for this big Exposition or it will go to the South. What excuse has any California paper for not boosting for the Fair in this State?"

DESERVES THE EXPOSITION.

The Legislature of California has done itself proud. Convened in extraordinary session by Governor Gillett its members passed an act providing $10,000,000 for the Panama-Pacific International Exposition in 1915, which all Westerners hope will go to San Francisco, which has proven herself the most marvelous city of the age since being all but obliterated by the gigantic disaster of April, 1906. By its complete rehabilitation in the short period of three years the Trojans of the West have already more than proved their claims to the Exposition, which should it go their restored city overlooking the Golden Gate would be the greatest the world has ever known. —Sonoma Index-Tribune.

SUMMARY OF PAST WEEK'S COAST NEWS

Interesting Events Among Our Neighbors in the Far West Reviewed.

What Has Transpired on the Border of the Broad Pacific From Alaska to Mexico.

Los Angeles.—Sixty prominent society women have organized the Southern California Association Opposed to the Ballot for Women.

Spokane, Wash.—Charles D. Howell, convicted mail train bandit, was sentenced to life imprisonment in the Federal prison at McNeil's Island, Washington, by Federal Judge Edward Whitson.

Santa Barbara.— Septic infection, superinduced by vaccination, was the cause of terrible suffering and the death of little Josie Aguila, aged five years, in this city, according to the death certificate.

Watsonville.—An explosion of acetylene in the Harlowe hardware store destroyed the stock and building, and the livery stable and Harris saddlery in buildings adjoining. A dozen horses were rescued from the Hansen stables. The loss is $20,000, with small insurance.

San Francisco.—Fresh from the firing line of half a dozen successful battles against special privileges in Wisconsin, Minnesota, St. Paul and Colorado, Francis J. Heney, leader in the San Franicsco graft prosecutions, has returned to this city and has announced that he has come back to stay.

Bakersfield.—Headed by the Inspector and Secretary of the State Board of Pharmacy, Sheriff J. W. Kelely and 40 deputies made a raid on Old Chinatown, and $3000 worth of pipes and $1500 worth of opium were seized. A physician and two drug store owners were also arrested in connection with the opium traffic.

Bakersfield.—Southern Pacific officials are planning to either double-track the present line over the Tehachapi mountains between Bakersfield and Mojave, or else build at a lower grade and entirely new line which will serve as a second track. Either plan, if carried out, will involve an outlay of a number of millions of dollars.

Fresno.—The San Joaquin Valley Medical Societv, alarmed by reports that organized efforts will be made at the next Legislature to obtain a modification of the present laws requiring general vaccination, decided at their annual meeting held in this city to appeal to the Legislature direct that the law be continued as it now stands.

San Francisco.—George A. Smith, a street car motorman, is under arrest, cearged with manslaughter. In a dense fog he crashed his car into a buggy and fataly injured Charles J. Cody, a retired detective of the San Francisco Police Department, and C. A. Murray, who was riding with him. Cody was killed instantly and Murray lived but a short while.

San Francisco.—A life buoy from the lost British ship Silberhorn was brought from the South sea by the liner Mariposa, from the port of Papeete, Island of Tahiti. The Silberhorn, while bound from Australia to Chile a year or two ago, was lost and none of the crew ever seen again. The buoy was afterwards found on one of the South Sea Islands and taken to Papeete.

Sacramento.—Two sets of requisition papers have been issued from the Governor's office. One is upon the Governor of Alabama for the return of L. E. Spencer, who is wanted in San Francisco on a felony charge. The other requisition is upon the Governor of Oregon for the return of Otto Dyer, who has been arrested in Portland, and who is wanted in San Francisco for having abandoned and neglected his wife since January.

Salinas.—One fatality and several narrow escapes from death attended a $6000 fire which destroyed Leman & Kattner's bakery and Frank Caslas' grocery and damaged Gydison's drug store. J. J. Connor, engineer of the local fire department, an honorary member of the Veteran Firemen's Association of San Francisco, dropped dead at his post 20 minutes after he had started his engine. Four men who were asleep in the upper part of the bakery when the fire broke out jumped from windows just in time to save their lives.

CALIFORNIA STATE PRISONS AND THEIR MANAGEMENT

Details and Progress Made by State Authorities in Charge.

Tirey L. Ford, president of the State Board of Prison Directors, has just published a very interesting pamphlet entitled "California State Prisons; their History, Development and Management." Besides giving a sketch of the origin and development, the pamphlet details the progress made in their management by the State authorities.

One of the most important and least understood branches of the State's Governmental activities the writer believes the State prison system to be. He says:

"After the home has failed, after the school has failed, after the church has failed, after the Juvenile Court has failed, after the reform school has failed, after probation has failed, and after society has branded him as a felon and a moral outcast, then the delinquent is received at the State prison and a final effort is made by the prison authorities to cure the moral infirmities that have grown and multiplied during the preceding years."

The pamphlet is printed on heavy coated paper and is profusely illustrated.

Californians Real Sportsmen.

San Francisco.—Charles A. Vogelsang, chief deputy warden of the State Fish and Game Commission, addressed the Commercial Club at its luncheon at the Palace hotel on the propagation of fish and game. He reviewed the history of the Commission since its organization in 1870. Vogelsang quoted the United States Commission of Fisheries as authority for the statement that this State's salmon work leads the world.

California, said the speaker, ranks second among the States in the issuance of licenses for hunters, the total last year being 128,000. This revenue, with fines, he said, makes the Commission, with more than 100 employees, practically self-sustaining. There have been killed up to date 11,022 mountain lions, with a bounty of $2 ahead. It is estimated that each mountain lion kills on an average 156 deer a year.

Long Telegraph Service for Alaska.

Vancouver Barracks, Wash. — Sergeant F. B. Thayer of the Signal Corps has been ordered to Chitina, Alaska, to determine the best location, the amount of material required and other necessary information for the building of a telegraph line from Chitina to a junction of the Fairbanks-Valdez line. In returning from this detail Sergeant Thayer will proceed along the road being constructed by the Alaska Road Commission from a point between Copper Center and Tosina to Chitina.

Absconder Mucking in Nevada.

Goldfield, Nev.—Harold B. Faxton has been arrested charged with the embezzlement of $73,000 in 1903 from the Boston National Bank. Faxton confessed the crime to the United States Marshal, saying that he had spent the stolen money in stock gambling. He has been living here under the name of Jack Morgan, working as a mucker in the Mohawk mine. He will return without requisition. He married a girl of this city two years ago and was divorced.

From Love of Art to Plain Stealing.

San Francisco.—William Kunze, who last March cut a Millet painting from its frame in the Park museum and was admitted to probation, will serve a term in the State prison for the offense. He admits that he stole some carpenter's tools which he tried to sell in Oakland. Judge Cabaniss has revoked the order admitting him to probation and sentenced him to two years in the State prison.

Will Test Vaccination Law.

Alameda.—Aroused by the action of the Alameda Board of Education in debarring his 15-year-old daughter from the Alameda high school because she is not vaccinated, J. A. Hemmel will make a test case of the compulsory vaccination law, which he contends is in conflict with the compulsory education law

New Steamers on Coast Run.

Seattle.—The transfer of the steamers Yale and Harvard from the Boston-New York run to the Pacific coast for use on the Los Angeles-San Francisco run has been financed by the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad, which operates the Fall River boats on Long Island Sound.

New Swedish Minister Appointed.

Stockholm.— Count Erensvard, the Sweedish Minister to Belgium, has been appointed Minister at Washington in succession to M. Lagercrantz.

Sons and Daughters of State Urge Support of Fair

San Francisco.—Last Friday afternoon Panama-Pacific Post Card Week suddenly terminated when the last bundle of cards was handed out at exposition headquarters, and the tired workers hung up a sign notifying the disappointed public that no more cards were to be had.

Two million cards, prepared for free distribution by the exploitation and publicity committee of the exposition, were disposed of during five days. The people of San Francisco, largely through the co-operation of the school children and women's committees, accounted for approximately 650,000 cards, and the balance were distributed throughout other sections of the State.

San Francisco, as was to be expected, led the State in distribution, but Los Angeles, after using up 225,000, was still working for the good of the State and had made a demand for cards that the committee could not supply. The figures for comparison are as follows:

San Francisco, 650,495; Los Aneles, 225,000; Oakland, 200,000; other cities, 924,505. Total, 2,000,000.

If each card was mailed—and there is reason to believe that the great majority will attain its postal destination—the total expense for postage will be in the neighborhood of $20,000.

San Franicsco.—Under the auspices of the combined parlors of the Native Sons and Native Daughters of the Golden West, a mass meeting was held in this city last week for the purpose of obtaining the support of the order throughout the State for the Senate and Assembly Constitutional Amendments which are to be voted on at the coming election to raise the money needed to guarantee the exposition to this city.

The fact that the exposition would benefit California as a whole was mentioned by ever speaker, and great stress also was laid on the fact that San Francisco was contributing $12,500,000, and that while the State was asked to vote for an investment of an additional $5,000,000, at least one-third of this further amount would be met by San Francsco.

Daniel A. Ryan, Grand President of the Native Sons presided and opened the exercises following the exhibition of a few moving picture films, by saying in part:

"The object in calling you here tonight is to ask you all to do your part in bringing the 1915 exposition to San Francisco. You are obligated by your order and your birtht to do all that you can to aid the people of this great State and you can do no greater work in that line than by turning all your energies toward furthering the object for which we are gathered here.

"We cannot get anything in this world without an effort and we cannot get this exposition without a great effort. You know how the people of San Francisco got together and within one hour contributed more than $4,000,000 toward the fair. Now the Legislature of the State has passed two constitutional amendments, one to enable the State to raise $5,000,000 by a tax, which will result in the acquisition of $1,250,000 per year for four years and the other to enable San Francisco to raise a similar amount.

"With the additional sums which have already been contributed by San Franciscans, making the total raised by this city $7,500,000, the $5,000,000 more which we are to raise by taxation, will make San Francisco's whole contribution $12,500,000.

"The State is now asked to vote $5,000,000, and it must not be forgotten that San Francisco will also bear its share of this levy, and that that share will be at least one-third of the whole amount. Now, when San Francisco is willing to do so much for something which will be to the ever lasting benefit of the whole State, surely it is little to ask that the residents of the other cities and towns help.

"Make committees of yourselves and your neighbors and get together so as to urge everybody to vote for the constitutional amendments. Spread the word around the State, and by voice and pen urge the importance of these amendments, not only to San Francisco, but to the whole State."

A resolution was introduced pledging the support of the two organizations for the exposition, pledging also that the societies work to have the amendments carry on November 8th. The resolutions were unanimouslv carried.

Shipload of Hindus Deported on Vessel That Brought Them

San Francisco.—One hundred and ten of the 111 Hindus who arrived here from the Far East on the Pacific Mail steamer Asia, were deported on the same vessel when it left for the Orient. Only one of the East Indians was permitted to land by the immigration authorities, the other 110 being sent back to their own country. Dr. Glover, the immigration doctor, discovered that a great many of the Hindus were afflicted with the hookworm, while others were deported on the ground that they might become public charges. Altogether 126 Hindus were sent back on the Asia. Fifty-three Chinese were also deported on the steamer.

Facilities for the examination of the Hindus as they arrive here are fortunately adequate at the new Angel Island station, and Dr. Glover is kept busy looking after the new arrivals. It is believed that the numbers headed in this direction will gradually diminish as it becomes known at Hongkong, where the East Indiamen embark for this city, that the hookworm disease has been added to the other objections against their entry into the United States.

Doctor Divulges Great Secret of a Common Remedy

Paris.—A new and remarkably successful treatment of dipsomania is announced by a medical paper. The patient who had been cured was apparently a hopeless case. His doctor prescribed a drug to be taken in minute doses to begin with, saying:

"It is a violent poison and can be absorbed only gradually. In time the system becomes inured to it. The drug must be mixed with your wine or spirits at the rate of one drop the first day, two the second, and so on, until your system is able to assimilate a whole glass of it. The drug will discolor your wine."

The dipsomaniac dutifully did as he was told, increasing the dose very gradually. He observed also that he became accustomed to drinking less and less wine as he increased the proportion of the drug. At last he drank with pleasure a glass full of the latter with only a dash of wine in it. He now feels no craving for wine or spirits. He went to thank his doctor and said: "Now, doctor, tell me what that marvelous drug was which has made another man of me?"

"Water," said the doctor.

Gibson Girl With Gun Fails to Bag Nevada Millionaire

Long Beach.— Julia Ward Gibson, daughter of a retired clergyman of Pasadena, was arrested at the home of A. D. Myers, a Nevada millionaire, after she had chased Myers out of his apartments with a revolver. Miss Gibson was taken to the county jail in Los Angeles tonight under $3000 bonds.

Miss Gibson recently filed a suit against Myers for $100,000 damages for breach of promise. She then came to Long Beach and brought her father, W. E. Gibson, along to perform the ceremony without delay.

Entering Myers' home she made her way to his apartments and forthwith demanded to know whether he intended to marry her. When he said no, she whipped out a revolver, according to Myers, and declared he had just half a minute to make up his mind.

Before the half minute had expired Myers found a door; and darting through it, he hurried down a back stairway and dashed across the grounds surrounding his residence to a neighbor's house. From there he telephoned the police who found Miss Gibson in possession of the mansion.

HISTORIC HULK OF THE MAINE TO BE TAKEN FROM HARBOR

Engineers Hope to Accomplish Work Within Three Months.

Beverly, Mass.—President Taft has finally approved plans for raising the wreck of the battleship Maine, which call for the completion of the work on or before the 13th anniversary of the destruction of the war vessel, February 15 next.

The President believes that the paramount question is the determining for all time the cause of the explosion. He has invited Spain to send a representative to be present during the work of exposing and removing the wreck.

No portion of the wreck is to be disturbed until a full opportunity has been gven to view and study it. To this end the first work will be the construction of a cofferdam of interlocking steel pilings large enough to give a clearance of 50 feet on all sides of the wreck. The engineers believe that it will be possible to float the after two-thirds of the vessel. The forward third, where the explosion wrought the greatest havoc, is believed to be too far gone to be taken out as a whole.

The wreck is now in 25 feet of water. It has sunk but one foot in twelve years and a half. The dam to be constructed about the wreck will be 415 feet in length and 275 feet at the widest point.

Considerable Damage to Tokays.

Stockton.—The wet weather has caused considerable damage to Tokay grapes on the black lands south of Lodi, and packing of that variety has been stopped until the sun shines. The growers there are in the midst of their shipping, as the grapes on the black land mature later than on the uplands, where most of the Tokays have already been shipped. The Emperor grapes will be unaffected by the stormy weather, on account of being a winter variety. The grape season has been shorter than usual this year, but prices have been uniformly better and the growers will make as much as they have averaged heretofore.

A Revolver Reduces Levy.

Venice, Cal.—Mrs. H. H. Morrow, wife of an Arizona mining man, offered a reward for the return of three valuable rings stolen several days ago. A young man dressed as a messenger boy called and said he had a trace of them. He was suspected as being the thief, and upon her promise not to have any one present, he agreed to bring the rings. Mrs. Morrow waited with a revolver under her apron. The man returned and she offered $25 reward. He demanded $100. Mrs. Morrow calmly leveled the revolver at him and he agreed to take the $25. After he had left Mrs. Morrow fainted.

Railroad Improvements.

Stockton.—The Santa Fe has expended more than $3,000,000 in improvements between Stockton and Richmond this summer, the most important feature being the completion of the work on the Franklin tunnel. Several months ago the railroad began concreting the tunnel, which is a mile and a quarter long. Trestles have been built across its land marshes, and the Oakley Hills have been cut through to obviate grades. Numerous landing places and spurs have been installed along the route.

New Record for Wright Biplane.

St. Louis.—In the same Wright biplane in which Walter Brookins set a record from Chicago to Springfield, Arch Hoxsey has set a new American record for sustained flight by going from Springfield to St. Louis over a course 104 miles long without a stop. He left Springfield at 11:55 a. m. and arrived here at 3:27 p. m.

Too Many "Jiners" in the Works.

Aurora, Ill.—A coal mine at Braceville, Ill., has just been closed because the workers celebrated too many holidays and attended too many funerals. Braceville is an old town, where nearly every one belongs to a lodge of some kind, and when a funeral occurs the lodge members must attend.

Youthful Hunter Claims Honors.

Ukiah.—Wes Rickard, the six-year-old son of C. J. Rickard of Ornbaun, claims the record as the most youthful hunter who has bagged the deer limit this season. The lad has the horns of a four-pointer and those of a two-pointer to his credit.

Sky Pilot Stuck on Stars.

Paris.—Santos-Dumont, the first man to fly, has quit the game for good. He has taken up astronomy as a fad and is building a giant observatory near Deanville, on the Atlantic coast, where he can study the sky.

Honolulu.—The Chinese barbers have been doing a land office business since Prince Tsai T'ao passed through Honolulu some months since. The local Celestials were given to uderstand that Prince Tsai was the one who had petitioned the imperial throne to lift the taboo on the cutting of queues, and after that there was but one thing to do. Properly to show respect the Chinese merchants of Honolulu felt that it was up to them to dispense with their pigtails and there has been a fall in queues ever since.

THE DOMESTIC VOCATION

By MRS. M. J. WILSON

House work and cooking when properly regarded, can be made more preferable and fascinating than any other occupation for woman. It is, and should ever be, a sphere in which true womanhood reigns.

To understand the art of cooking well, keeping the house orderly, and at the same time keeping themselves neatly and tastily attired, is in itself a profession which every woman should master and feel proud of. What prettier compliment could a woman receive than to have it said, what executive ability she has in her home management. What a splendid cook, how beautifully she browns her meats and prepares her vegetables. Such delicious cake, and lovely bread, and the taste with which she dresses her table is enough to make the most fastidious hungry.

It is not this kind of work that is so distasteful to women who would follow it for a livelihood, but the estimate placed upon her in such labor that makes girls shun this vocation. Therefore, it breeds a spirit of aspiration in the breast of every intelligent girl to rise above menial labor, and avoid being placed upon the roll of servant girl.

With the facilities now for education furnished by our government, every American born girl is enabled to fit herself for the higher walks of life, leaving only the ignorant immigrant girl seeking the position of servant. Except in extreme cases where reverses of circumstances force some widowed mother to allow her daughter to accept the position of domestic, and she whose former advantages having given her a rained mind, a capability of managing without every movement being directed, all of which serves to make her more helpful and useful, and should make her more appreciated, also serves to make the little discourtesies shown her more keenly felt.

As she realizes her work does not rank with other positions such as clerks, office girls, nurses, teachers and stenographers, who draw salaries, not wages, and finds herself shunned, where girls of other occupations are received, almost loosing her identity, being spoken of as my hired girl by the higher class of employers; and as my servant by the would be higher class. She feels herself deserving of a better place in life, and can not become reconciled to the discourtesies and inconsiderations she is subjected to. Where if kindness, fairness, justice, tempered with firmness were shown, she might remain in the family for any period of time desired, proving herself a blessing to the family as well as a help.

Allow me to specialize, and relate a couple of instances which have come under my personal observation, such as one little girl of beautiful character who after much persuasion consented to assist a family in need of help. She was given quarters up in an unfinished garret, among old broken furniture and cast off junk, to sleep in a bunk which a Chinaman who had just been discharged, had occupied. Needless to say she did not remain. Another young girl just as dear, who, after preparing all the meals, doing all the general house work, putting out all the infants' laundry, together with the underwear, towels and napkins for a large family, washing the floors, steps and banisters on hands and knees in one day, was told when nothing else could be found to do, now you may go out and clean out the hen roost. The result was the same as the above. These are not extreme cases. I could name others just as inconsistent.

These former conditions have forced the crisis of not being able to obtain suitable help. The heavily drawn lines of the employees, and the ostracism to social functions have forced the decisive lines now drawn by all desirable girls. It has been said some girls choose to beside a Chinaman making cigars for small wages in preference to house work as a domestic.

This simply shows to what extremes girls are sometimes driven. While such work is repulsive and undesirable, the situation forbidding, she need have no words in common with the Chinaman, therefore is not subject to insult, has regular working hours, which gives her a little time to do for herself. Where on the other hand, her work is all hours, and the idea seems to prevail that the young girl who adapts the vocation of general house work has no right to virtue, and ofttimes the hand that should protect her immediately plans her downfall.

While these several conditions of the domestic exists, families where help is indispensible must go on eating canned stuffs and bakery cooking, instead of nice hot biscuit, fresh corn bread, breaded chops, pot roast with brown gravy, creamed mashed potatoes, custard pie, cream cake, and many other nice things that might be named.

The stigma of inferiority should be taken from the hands of innocent womanhood who might desire to lead this useful and important life, then even with small compensation, having board and a comfortable room furnished, proper consideration shown, it would have the stimulus of a home, and be preferable to many other kinds of work, and enable her to do her work cheerfully and well, with complete satisfaction to all parties concerned.

BEAUTIFY YOUR HOMES

By J. H. NEFF

How many of us do this? To beautify our homes is not only adding happiness and cheerfulness to our homes but increases the valuation of our property. Have a nice lawn or flower garden, train your children to grow and love flowers and have a little corner somewhere in the yard for them, so they may grow them and get interested in them. It is more refining for them than reading cheap novels and continued story papers. Plant more shade trees along your walks and drive ways. Dont let them branch out too near the ground; it makes walking difficult. Keep them trained up along your walks; this adds to the grace and beauty of the trees.

What is more attractive to strangers when they come into a town than to see beautiful yards of flowers, and lawns, and clean streets and beautiful shade trees along the walks, artistically trimmed up? Why, they say right a way "My, my, isn't this a lovely place?" They commence inquiring around what property is worth and, per chance, some one makes a sale.

Now we will look at the contrast. Suppose we let our yards grow up with weeds or possibly there is nothing growing at all in the yards, and our streets are poorly kept up, and the shade trees haggard with limbs growing low over the walks, will they not say, "My, isn't this a desolate looking place?" Campbell Park is a sample of this. Now see what a few hours each week cultivating flowers in your yards will do towards beautifying your homes. We have some beautiful yards in Campbell, yet more of us should take pattern after North First street there you will find some yards hard to beat anywhere in the valley.

Flowers, lovely flowers, we want them everywhere; in the churhes, in the schools and the sick room. Flowers, beautiful flowers, let's grow them everywhere.

JUDGE M. C. SLOSS

Candidate for Associate Justice of the Supreme Court.

Some one has said that the Supreme Court is the bulwark of our liberties; at any rate, we know that much depends upon the personal character of our judges as well as upon their knowledge of law and clearness of vision. It is not every judge who possesses a judicial mind, and without such a mind justice cannot prevail. Sometimes, however, a just judge, in rendering a decision in an intricate case, suffers from the unjust criticism of those who, having no knowledge of law, and blinded by their own prejudices, are not competent to criticise. Yet, the people as a whole, are generally quick to see where an injustice has been practiced, and are specially alert in determining the character of a judge by his environment and association. The best test of a candidate for a judicial position is his record, provided he has had an opportunity to make one. These remarks are simply preliminary to the consideration of the claims of Judge M. C. Sloss for reelection to the Supreme Bench, and as a matter of enlightenment, we submit to our readers, these few facts which favor Judge Sloss:

First: He does not seek the office for the salary thereof. He loves work for work's sake, and is in public life for the love of it and the opportunity afforded to earn the honor of the community and the respect of his fellowmen. This may seem strange to the pessimist, but it is a fact nevertheless.

That Judge Sloss was endorsed by the Lincoln-Roosevelt league after careful consideration of his record, speaks volumes for his candidacy, for while the league, like all human organizations, is only human, yet in the minds of a large number of voters, the league represents the best thought of a progressive and patriotic body of men, not all to be found in the Republican party. These men prior to the primaries, selected Judge Sloss for their candidate because they knew that he was in sympathy with those judicial and other reforms looking to the betterment of the common people, and also because his decisions on the bench have shown his humanity, and his careful regard for those who need protection against what Mr. Roosevelt terms, the "illegal combinations of capital." Corporations should not be abridged of their rights, any more than individual,—all fair minded-men will admit this but, inasmuch as they are in a position by reason of their power, wealth and influence, to protect themselves, the individual who is not in a like position, must depend upon a fair and just administration of the law by and through the servants of the people and elected by them.

Judge Sloss comes before the people under the most favorable auspices. His record as a just judge has been established, his friends are the friends of good government, and for good government, his election is demanded. Under the impetus of his large primary vote, he should be elected by an overwhelming majority in November.

REMEMBER
for COUGHS & COLDS

Why He Spoke Softly.

The late Justice Brewer was presiding, years ago, over a civil case in which one of the important witnesses was a horse doctor named Williams. The doctor was a small man with a weak little voice, and the counsel on both sides, as well as the court and jury, had great difficulty in hearing his testimony.

During cross-examination the counsel for the plaintiff became exasperated and began to prod and harry the little man.

"Dr. Williams," he shouted, "if we are ever going to get anywhere with this case you must speak up so the court will hear you. Speak up loud and strong, sir!"

The small-sized veterinary tried, but it was evidently no use. Whether from embarrassment or inability the sound would not come.

"Well, your honor——" began the counsel indignantly, when Judge Brewer stopped him with a gesture. Leaning over the bench he said in his kindly tone:

"Mr. Attorney, you must be patient with the doctor. He cannot help it. Years spent in the sick room have apparently made speaking low a second nature with him."

PHYSICIAL WRECK RESTORED TO HEALTH BY GREAT KIDNEY REMEDY.

I feel it my duty to furnish you with my testimonial as to what your remedy Swamp-Root did for me when I was a physical wreck from kidney and bladder trouble.

Some years ago I was not able to do any work and could only just creep around and am satisfied that had it not been for Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root I would not have lived. After using the preparation for one month I was able to work some and when I had used $8.00 worth of Swamp-Root I could do a good day's work. I used about $10.00 worth altogether and would not take $10,000 for the good that it did me. I consider it a God-send to suffering humanity for the diseases for which you recommend it and have recommended it many sufferers.

FATE OF EXPOSITION IS IN HANDS OF THE VOTERS

Adoption of Amendments 34 and 35 Necessary for California to Win.

San Francisco.—Reports to the exposition committee from all parts of the State indicate that the two constitutional amendments intended to increase the Panama-Pacific Exposition fund to $17,500,000 will be carried by an overwhelming vote. Newspaper opposition to the measures has practically disappeared and the editors of the State appear to be a unit on the necessity of California going before Congress with a fund that will insure San Francisco being awarded the prize.

Editors who voiced their opposition to the amendments when they were adopted by the Legislature are now enthusiastic champions of the plan to raise $5,000,000 by a State tax and $5,000,000 by bonds on San Francisco. The latter sum, of course, will be no burden to the taxpayers of the State. The debt will be borne entirely by San Francisco, whose citizens have already subscribed about $7,500,000.

The meeting of the State Press Association recently held at the St. Francis Hotel in this city was called to interest the molders of public opinion in the proposed tax levy to be voted on in November. Describing the meeting the Vallejo Chronicle says:

"It was shown clearly that the patriotic spirit of the people of the State should be and is for the proposition, and that it should have the loyal support of every voter. The benefits to accrue from this enterprise will lie throughout the whole State, and it was gratifying to find that the proposition received the unanimous endorsement of the publishers. The State of Louisiana with an assessed valuation of half a billion dollars hopes to vote an appropriation of $6,500,000 for an exposition at New Orleans. The State of California with an assessed valuation of two and a half billion dollars is asked to vote only $5,000,000. Will our State, five times richer than Louisiana, allow it to be said that her people are less progressive than are those of Louisiana? Let every reader of this paper and every voter in this State work and vote for this tax issue, which if for nothing else means an advertisement that will enrich the State with population, with industry and with glory."

The editor of the Palo Alto Times declares the movement for an exposition in San Francisco is fraught with vital importance to the whole State.

"San Francisco is merely the place where it will be held," says the Times. "The fair will exhibit the wonderful resources and advantages of California and place before the world in its proper perspective the importance of the whole Pacific ocean as the future theater of the world's commerce."

The proposed State tax to raise $5,000,000 in four yearly installments will be an infinitesmal burden on the taxpayer, declares the Times' editor.

"The levy needed to raise $1,250,000 a year will be only a little over 4 cents on the hundred dollars. The man who is down on the tax roll for $1,500, which would be an average valuation for a Palo Alto home, would pay 60 cents a year to the fair fund. Most men spend more for cigars every month than their tax for the fair would amount to in the whole four years."

As to the benefits to be derived from the fair, the Times says:

"The first return the State will get will be nearly one-half of the net profits of the exposition. These profits are to be paid back pro rata to the State and to the subscribing stockholders. There will also be a great revival of business and industry throughout the State which will indirectly more than pay the cost."

E. R. Cleveland, publisher of the Analy Standard, of Sebastopol, is one of Sonoma county's greatest boosters. He believes the exposition will result in immeasureable benefit to the whole State. "Up in Sonoma county," said Mr. Cleveland during a recent visit to San Francisco, "the people are alive to the necessity of adopting the two tax amendments. They know that only by advertising the State's resources can California attain her aim to attract capital and homeseekers. The exposition will be the biggest advertisement the State could get. If the amendments called for ten million instead of five million dollars, I am certain the people of Sonoma county would vote for them. Personally, I believe an annual expenditure of a million dollars in advertising California would be an excellent investment. See what Southern California has accomplished by advertising. Tourists leave millions of dollars there every year. All over the world are people who believe the State of California is confined to the section south of Tehachapi. Yes, the tax amendments should carry."

Fred J. Vivian, editor of the King City Rustler, also is a booster for the two amendments. Vivian is a power in Monterey county and he is ready at all times to lend his aid to any movement he is convinced will benefit his county or State.

The postponed literary meeting of the Philosophia Literary society took place Friday afternoon. The program, including a debate, was well carried out by the young ladies.

The list of questions, from which one is to be chosen, pertains to the general topic, "Suffrage".

Miss Moulton pleasantly entertained the Sophomores on the evening of Friday, the fourteenth, at her home on Johnson avenue. The evening was spent in playing games and in toasting delicious marshmellows, of which there was a plentiful supply; ice cream followed and the class yells on departure gave evidence of a good time.

Miss Panilla Nelson, daughter of Mrs. S. G. Nelson of Sunny Oaks district, was married in Berkeley last Saturday evening. Miss Nelson graduated from the Campbell High School several years ago. Her many friends in this community will be pleased to learn of the happy event.

The Berkeley Gazette contains the following:

"Ray W. Olsen and Miss Bertha P. Nelson were united in marriage in the Park Congregational church Saturday evening, Rev. Price performing the ceremony in the presence of over 100 guests. A wedding supper for the bridal party followed the ceremony at the church. The bride was attended by Miss Helen Livingston and Bert Moulthrope assisted the groom. The bridal gown was white silk, and the veil was worn. A shower of bride's roses completed the costume. The maid of honor wore a gown of pongee silk and carried white carnations. The groom is a son of former Town Trustee Nels Olsen. He is engaged in business in Berkeley and after the honeymoon will bring his bride to a home on Blake st., which he has prepared for her."

RICHMOND

WHY?

The Standard Oil Co., The Pullman Car Company., The Southern Pacific R. R. Co., and Santa Fe R. R. Co., have invested over Thirty Million of Dollars ($30,000,000.00) since 1900. SOME OF THE OTHERS: Associated Oil Co., Berkeley Steel Works, California Wine Association (largest Winery in the world), Great Western Brick Co., California Cap Co., Central Brick Co., East Shore Railway (35 miles of street railway), Healy & Tibbitts Quarry Co., Standard Can Factory, San Pablo Quarry Co., Los Angeles Brick Co., The Western Pipe & Steel Co., Stove Foundry, Richmond Furniture Factory, Metropolitan Cap Factory, United States Briquetts Co., Richmond Lumber Co., Compressed Asphalt Brick Co., Tilden & Eakle Lumber Co.; Shaw-Harrington Gas Engine Co., Richmond Cut Stone Factory, Pacific Porcelain Ware Co., The Western Pole & Piling Co., California Chair Co., Arctic Oil Co., and more than twenty other industries too numerous to enumerate. NEW FACTORIES COMING IN ALL THE TIME!

WHY? Because Richmond has advantages not equalled in California—14 miles on deep water front—RICHMOND is the outlet of the great California Oil Fields, making fuel at the very lowest cost for factory, railroad and steamship purposes. Being the terminus of the pipe lines from California's oil fields Richmond becomes the basing point from which prices are regulated. In proportion as the distance increases or diminishes from Richmond, the price of fuel oil must fluctuate. Our entire navy is now being supplied from this source. TWENTY-FIVE MILLION DOLLARS of improvements projected for the next eighteen months.

CAN YOU BEAT IT?—From a population of less than 100 to a population of over 18,000 in ten years—CAN YOU BEAT IT?

RICHMOND IS bound to become the largest manufacturing city on the Pacific Coast monthly payroll NOW $400,000.00. Richmond is absolutely independent of San Francisco, and is the only bay city that can truly say the same. Richmond was good enough for such masters of finance as Rockfeller, Ripley, Harriman and The Pullmans to invest millions of dollars there. Is it not good enough for you? Follow their example before it is too late and property too high for you to buy. DONT TELL YOUR CHILDREN TWENTY YEAR FROM NOW WHAT YOU COULD HAVE BOUGHT THESE LOTS FOR, they won't think any more of you. SEE! LOOK! THINK! CANNOT YOU SEE THE FUTURE OF RICHMOND? When the Pullman Car Co. located at Chicago that city did not give half the promise that RICHMOND does today. We are offering today large fully improved lots, Sewers, Curbs, Macadamized Streets, City Water and Cement Sidewalks, all included in the purchase price in our
